Critical Perspectives on Citizenship, Belonging, Migration Policies

Venue: “Skyfall”, a.r.t.e.s. graduate school, Aachener Str. 217, 50931 Cologne

- 10:00 – 13:00 Panel Discussion
(Moderation: Michaela Pelican, UoC)

Jonathan Ngeh (UoC) will contribute to the topic of ‘rethinking citizenship’ with a discussion on how migrants navigate the legal restrictions imposed on them and negotiate their belonging in the United Arab Emirates.

Maysa Ayoub (AUC) will contribute to the topic of ‘lived experiences of migration and displacement’ with a discussion on how different groups of refugees in Egypt navigate legal precarity, and how their ability to do so is shaped by the intersections of race, nationality, class, and gender.

Saleh Adem (UoC) will contribute with a discussion on the intersection between the kafala (sponsorship) system and EU migration control externalisation regime in Ethiopia examining how the EU's externalization efforts, including capacity-building initiatives and development projects in Ethiopia, may inadvertently redirect migration flows towards the legal pathways offered by the kafala system in GCC countries.
